PUBLIC MEETING - RARE II

The following people were present at a public hearing held at 2:00 P.M. in the Commissioners Room on August 7, 1978: Greg Beckstrom of the SEUAOG, Clay Clemens Utah Energy Office, Stan Elmer: Natural Resources, Dale Torgeson: US Forest Service, Bryant L Christensen: US Forest Service, LaRue McDaniel: Blanding City Council, Opal Hooper, Bluff City Council, Richard Walker, SEUAOG.

Mr. Clay Clemens stated that they (the Forest Service) were there to get an Assessment on the problems and implications on mining and grazing etc., so that the Government could draft a response to the RARE II concept.

Commissioner Black asked Dale Torgeson if a wilderness area meant no mining unless the people who were mining had the money to fight the government and the environmentalists in Court Lawsuits. He stated that this was a fair assessment.

Commissioner Black also stated that in a Wilderness the only thing that was allowed was livestock grazing as long as no vehicles were used in maintenance and as long as no development took place. There is also a chance that if these wilderness areas are designated that they will also be designated as Class 1 air areas. This would virtually halt any mining or industry within about one hundred miles of the wilderness areas.

Commissioner Black asked Bryant Christensen: Do you under present management authority have the ability to manage an area as almost total wilderness? Mr. Christensen stated that they had control over timber harvest and soft minerals. Mr. Black asked if this wasn't almost total management control? Mr Christensen stated that it was almost total.

Commissioner Black stated that the environmentalists were trying to bring the country to its knees economically by closing down mining during a time of an energy crisis.

The following areas are in danger of being designated as wilderness areas: Arch Canyon, Hammond Canyon, and Wooden Shoe Canyon. These areas are rimmed by a mineral formation that is known to have important minerals in the formation such as gold, silver, and uranium.

Commissioner Guymon stated that this should be put to a vote by the residents who will be affected by the wilderness areas rather than people from around the nation who know nothing about the areas or the problems involved.

Commissioner Guymon also stated that the government was discriminating against the Elderly and the Handicapped by closing off these areas to all but those who had the time and the health to backpack into these areas.

Commissioner Black stated that we don't need any Congressional designated wilderness areas. The various agencies have management policies to protect the resources. This is how these areas should be governed, not locked up by legislative mandate.
